Senator Ron Wyden said yesterday:

"Every American has the RIGHT to know when their government believes it is allowed to KILL them!"

That's a good point, given that:

- A top constitutional and military law expert says that Obama claims the right to assassinate any American citizen without charge (updates here and here)
- The defense department says that even the identity of enemies which our government is at war against is classified
- Secret agencies are making life-and-death decisions in secret, using secret evidence and secret witnesses ... and even the laws upon which the decisions are made are secret

The fact that a senator even needs to say that shows how far we've fallen.
