It has become common practice in the alternative media, especially those parts of the alternative media that identify themselves with the term "conservative", to provide detail and often quite accurate data about the manner in which COVID-19 vaccines are employed to kill off the population, and to offer new insights into the enormous frauds, engineered by the corporate elites, using the names of the United Nations and the World Health Organization. But the ultimate responsibility for those actions is attributed by these blogs and reporters to the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) and to the People's Republic of China (PRC).

The conclusion in most cases is that the US is under assault from communists in China and that the democrats in the US who abet its actions are "leftists". Concerns about actions of the CCP in the US and globally are not without evidence.
