

VIDEO: Drifting towards a National Security State: Debate about Secret Session in House of Representatives.

Questions by Rep. Dennis Kucinich

By Global Research

Global Research, July 14, 2008

14 July 2008

Region: USA

Theme: Police State & Civil Rights

CLICK TO VIEW:

Debate about Secret Session in House of Representatives (March 13, 2008)

Debate to discuss FISA changes.

"For more than an hour they debated [March 13] the nuances of a proposed secret session of the House that the Republicans wanted in order to share secret information about a secret wiretapping program that is being debated by Congress due to a secret ruling from a secret spying court about the legality of the President's secret spying program."

The House is scheduled to vote on legislation about spying and legal amnesty for partners in the president's secret wiretapping program tomorrow, though that vote was ostensibly scheduled for Thursday and could get postponed again."

The changes to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) were adopted on July 9th

The original source of this article is Global Research
Copyright © Global Research, Global Research, 2008

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: Global Research

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca