Meet Michael Welch, producer and host of the Global Research News Hour weekly radio news and analysis report out of Winnipeg, Manitoba.

The GRNH features prominent authors and personalities. With limited resources, the Global Research News Hours is broadcast by twelve community and university radio stations across Canada as well as in the U.S.

To remain fully independent of the corporate and government influence, we rely on GR readers and listeners to support the the endeavors of Michael Welch's GRNH as well the CKUW radio station hosted by the University of Winnipeg.
