Judge Andrew Napolitano: What damage is Israel doing not just to Gaza, not just to itself, but to the world by its invasion of the Gaza Strip?

Does the US support the unbridled invasion of Gaza by the Israeli military? And if so, does it appreciate the consequences of such support?

Philip Girdi: The fundamental question that we're confronting here is the extent to which the US is capable of supporting its own national interest which includes not getting involved in places like Ukraine and Israel-Gaza unless there is a compelling national interest that drives the process.

In this case the US was not threatened by either the Russians or the Gazans yet it's fully engaged in the process of supporting countries that are basically not doing any good for us.
