The note ban hit poor people the hardest.

Victims of sea erosion living in a camp in Valiyathura School tell their plight.

For these people who already lost their homes due to sea erosion the note ban was a double blow.

GR Editor's Note

The victims of Prime Minister Modi's Demonetization Program, tell their story.

Their lives are destroyed. What was the purpose of this devastating process ordered by the Indian government.

Was it a policy blunder or a deliberate intent to undermine and destroy small scale retailers and producers across the land.

Visibly this policy does not affect the Black Economy, which largely transacts in high denomination bank notes.

Who was behind this initiative.
