A massive protest erupted in France's capital, Paris, over sending troops to the Ukraine.

Hundreds of protesters were seen opposing a recent proposal by Emmanuel Macron. "Macron, go to Ukraine alone," slogans were raised by angry protesters. Demonstrators also tore up EU and NATO flags and waved French tricolours instead. The protesters carried banners saying, "We are not willing to die for Ukraine" and "Let's stop pumping weapons into Kyiv."

This comes after Emmanuel Macron hinted at a possible NATO troop deployment in Ukraine.
