America's Approach to Syria and Iran Is Crazy

We've repeatedly noted that the U.S. is oddly fighting on the same side as Al Qaeda in Syria.

We've also pointed out that top American and Israeli experts say that Iran has not decided to build a nuclear bomb, and that – even if Iran ever does decide to build one – it would pose no real threat to the U.S. or Israel.

Pat Buchanan echoes both facts, saying about Syria, “If its good for Al Qaeda, can it be good for us?”, and noting that Israel has 300 nukes, so Iran possessing a couple of nuclear bombs would pose no threat.

Like Buchanan or hate him ... he's right here.
