As the Syrian battle front rages in Aleppo, the 'White Helmets' are emerging even more strongly as part of the long arm of US and UK propaganda in Syria. The Manhattan campaign managers at Purpose Inc have sprung into action. Red is the new black on Facebook and "Aleppo is burning" is the new slogan. White Helmets are in every video and photograph being circulated by western and gulf media.

We will be writing a series of articles to cover rapidly developing events. White Helmet leader, Raed Saleh, recently deported from the US, is top of our list but as usual our research has uncovered more than we bargained for. Watch this space.

Today, however, let us consider the White Helmets and their potential nomination for the Nobel Peace Prize in 2016.

Ever heard of The White Helmets ('Syrian Civil Defence')? Nice PR, but

Christian Science Monitor, 14 April 2013

Looking for Obama's agenda in Syria
As killings in Syria worsen, more people look to Obama for action. But the mental preparation for action doesn't start with the White House.

Arrived at the scene of the blast... about one dozen barrel bombs have torn a whole tower block apart. #ShareHumanity

1. Recycling old war photos to lie about their work

2. Helping Jabhat al Nusra (al Qaeda) with body disposal, after an execution

Nobel Peace Prize for Al Qaeda?

If you vehemently disagree with this nomination please go to the Syria Solidarity

Movment petition and sign accordingly. The petition has deliberately been posted on the same Change.org site and in lock step with the petition raised to promote the Syria White Helmets nomination.
