Michael J. Matt takes a look at some good news regarding the Covid recovery rate before exploring what's really going on with the global pandemic.

To understand this, he takes us to Switzerland—to the World Economic Forum—where the movers and shakers of the world have been meeting on a regular basis, especially since January 2020, to plan 'The Great Reset' at the Davos 2021 Summit in January.

Using multiple video clips, Michael shows how everyone from Soros, to Gates, to Schwab, to Al Gore and the Secretary-General of the United Nations are only too eager to admit that Covid offers them a rare opportunity to reset the world economy, population control, global commerce, climate change regulation, education and the UN Sustainable Development Goals in order to "reorder," "reimagine" and fundamentally transform every aspect of life as we know it.

The folks at Davos want a New World Order, and the only thing standing in their way at the moment is US.
