After repeated references to the "Libya scenario" for North Korea – a point not lost on Pyongyang considering that the US destroyed Libya and killed its leader – the North Korean government finally struck back verbally, calling US Vice President Mike Pence a "dummy" for again warning that North Korea could end up like Libya. That was enough for President Trump to cancel next month's historic summit meeting. Does following the neocons make Trump look tough...or weak? Tune in to today's Liberty Report:
