Once upon a time, a man entered a store.

Behind the counter stood an angel, whom he asked: “What do you have to offer me?”

The angel replied: “Anything you want, and for free.”

Then the man called out:

“If so, I would like to have for myself and all beings in the whole world,
Good health, and enough to eat, and clean water, and freedom, and love, and no one who is lonely and must endure pain or suffering,
and bright children's eyes, and a smile every day,
and a healthy nature, and happiness, and good air, and no more poverty, and no more war, and, and, and....”

Then the angel interrupted him:

“Dear person, we don't offer finished products here.

We only carry seeds."
