Global Research, June 30, 2022

The goal of the Global Research website is to shed light on complex and controversial issues often neglected by the mainstream media. It is through our readers' support and our authors' endeavors that allows us to sustain this objective. By sharing the information we publish and engaging in research and dialogue, you help us maintain our online presence while retaining our independence.

Please continue to support us in our day-to-day operations and help us expand our scope and content by clicking below to contribute financially via a donation or a membership subscription.
